1. Use Lagrange Multipliers to maximize $f(x, y) = 3xy$ subject to the constraint $x + 3y = 12$. You may assume the maximum exists (i.e., you do not have to justify that your answer is, in fact, a maximum).